

SAPERE AUDE

DUNDALK GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Founded 1739

NEEDS YOU

Applications are invited for the position of BOARDING SUPERVISORS (PART-TIME)

Commencing September 2019

The Boarding Department of Dundalk Grammar School, a co-educational boarding school has a vacancy for a Residential Assistant. The Boarding House accommodates approximately 100 boarding students from Sunday evening to Friday each week.

The successful candidate will be required to take on at least one night duty per week and supervisory roles each evening. S/he should be available from September 2019 until May/June 2020 (excluding school holidays).

The position would suit a reliable, physically active, outgoing person who would like to involve him/her-self in the experience of boarding school life.

The position may particularly suit independent, reliable undergraduate or post-graduate students (male or female).

Possessing any of the following may be advantageous:

- A First Aid qualification
- Willingness to get involved in extra curricular activities
- Experience in working with young people.

The school is offering a flexible work schedule to the successful candidate/s who must commit to a minimum of one academic year. Full time accommodation including meals may be available to the selected candidate.

All candidates will be required to undergo Garda vetting.

Applicants should apply (on or before Wednesday 15th May) to the Headmaster by email to admin@dgs.ie with (i) a cover letter, (ii) a full curriculum vitae (including photograph), and (iii) two written references.

Looking for free accommodation for the next academic year?

Interested in boosting your CV, working with young people and getting paid?

Check out how to become a Boarding Supervisor at www.dgs.ie by clicking Boarding!